Fury erupts outside Spanish Transport Ministry after train disaster (VIDEOS)

Protesters clashed with police in Madrid as they demanded resignations following a high-speed train collision that killed at least 68 people

Published 28 Oct, 2026 23:29 | Updated 29 Oct, 2026 05:39

Protesters clashed with police outside the Transport Ministry in Madrid as they demanded accountability for a high-speed train collision that killed at least 68 people near Toledo.

Wednesday's crash near Urda in Toledo province was Spain's second major railway disaster in less than ten months. On January 18, a train derailed near Adamuz,

Clashes erupt during a protest in Madrid, Spain, October 28, 2026. © Ananda

Top stories

Dozens killed in Spanish high-speed train collision (VIDEOS)

France planning new riot crackdown law

Elon Musk 'a real genius' – Putin

Russia-Africa Summit 2026: What you need to know about building a multipolar world without the West EXPLAINER

Why Moscow shouldn't fear a Democratic victory in the US midterms ANALYSIS

Cordoba province, and collided with another train traveling in the opposite direction, killing 46 people.

Manjon / Europa Press via Getty Images

According to elDiario.es, the demonstration, organized by far-right groups Falange and Revuelta, demanded the resignations of Prime Minister Pedro Sanchez and Transport Minister Oscar Puente. "How many more people have to die before we throw these murderers and traitors out of our institutions?" Falange spokesman Federico Campanero said in a speech.

Some protesters threw flares and other objects at police, who pushed back the crowd and used tear gas.

Subscribe to RT newsletter to get news highlights of the day right in your mailbox

E-mail

We offer you the possibility to receive RT's news highlights every Monday, Wednesday and Friday by email.

Subscribe

RT Features

'We are a country divided': Who will feel betrayed by Israel's next government?

FEATURE