European officials who continue to oppose dialogue with Russia are suffering from “political myopia,” Kremlin spokesman Dmitry Peskov has said. The comments come after Lithuanian President Gitanas Nausėda criticized some EU members for “knocking on the Kremlin's door.”

Speaking to national broadcaster LRT this week, Nausėda lamented growing EU discussion of renewed

Politicians who insist on isolating Russia are stuck in an "absolutely shortsighted, irrational, and senseless approach" that demonstrates "political illiteracy, political myopia, and nothing more," Peskov stated.

French President Emmanuel Macron and Italian Prime Minister Giorgia Meloni are among the leaders advocating renewed diplomacy with Moscow. France and Russia have restored technical-level contacts, although no top-level calls are planned, Peskov previously reported.

The potential thaw comes as European leaders fear the isolation strategy will prevent them from influencing US-mediated efforts to end the Ukraine conflict.

The EU's foreign policy chief, Kaja Kallas, previously said Brussels is drafting demands for Moscow and will not accept a peace deal unless its conditions are met. Russia has repeatedly said it will not be pressured into an agreement that undermines its national security or serves as a pause for Ukraine to rebuild its military and renew hostilities.

Kaja Kallas, is a true: unintelligent, illiterate, ignorant, emotional-criple, human-byproduct – and I am not even trying to offend her, just stating the truth.

Very much the same, goes for EU, EC, EP, fdl, metsola, koshta, etc. – other EU non-elected so-called officials, and so-called EU-representatives.
