

QUESTION
MORE

⚡ Massive protests decry Zelensky's 'authoritarian' move against anti-graft agencies | Russia-Ukraine conflict

LIVE

24 Jul, 2025 16:48 / Home / World News

Jeremy Corbyn launches new UK political party

The former Labour leader has said that 'Your Party' will take on the rich and reiterated his anti-war position

Jeremy Corbyn © Getty Images / Mark Kerrison / Contributor

Former Labour Party leader Jeremy Corbyn has announced the launch of a new political party in the UK, vowing to challenge what he described as a "rigged system."

Corbyn led Labour from 2015 to 2020, but was expelled from the party in 2024 after running as an independent in his Islington North constituency. He had already been suspended over his response to allegations of anti-Semitism within Labour, which he denied, calling the claims politically motivated. His supporters saw it as a smear campaign tied to his anti-austerity and anti-war views.

In a statement on X on Thursday, he declared it was "time to build new kind of political party – one that belongs to you," emphasizing the party's commitment to tackling inequality.

The party is expected to include other left-wing figures suspended or expelled by Labour, particularly Zarah Sultana, the MP for Coventry South, who was reprimanded in 2024 after voting to lift the cap on child benefits – a policy widely criticized by anti-poverty campaigners. A website, "yourparty.uk," has been launched, though Sultana clarified that the party is "not called Your Party."

Top stories

Russiagate was America's other Pearl Harbor – US senator

Bill Clinton praised Epstein's 'childlike curiosity' – WSJ

Germany investing in 'spy cockroaches' – Reuters

'All of Gaza will be Jewish' – Israeli minister

France to recognize Palestine – Macron

Western media outlets warn Israel of starving Gaza journalists

Plane with 49 people on board crashes in Russia (VIDEO)

$10mn of USAID contraceptives to be burned in France – media

Subscribe to RT newsletter to get news highlights of the day right in your mailbox

E-mail

×
?

Privacy Badger has replaced this X \(Twitter\) widget

Allow once

Always allow on this site

We offer you the possibility to receive RT's news highlights every Monday, Wednesday and Friday by email.

Subscribe

Corbyn and Sultana said 4.5 million children are living in poverty in the UK and criticized a “rigged system” where corporations profit from rising bills while “billions” are set aside for war.

“We cannot accept these injustices – and neither should you,” the statement reads, going on to advocate “mass redistribution of wealth and power” by taxing the wealthiest.

Corbyn has clashed frequently with Labour’s current leadership over military support for Israel and Ukraine.

The UK has been one of the most vocal supporters of Kiev’s war effort. Corbyn has repeatedly called for a diplomatic solution and questioned whether the UK is “at war” with Russia.

READ MORE: UK PM must explain if country is at war with Russia – ex-opposition leader

Moscow perceives the Ukraine conflict as a Western proxy war against Russia. The Kremlin has consistently denounced Western arms deliveries to Kiev, saying that they only prolong the conflict without changing its outcome. It has also accused the EU and UK of impeding ongoing peace efforts and criticized their expanded defense budgets, warning it could precipitate a broader conflict in Europe.

You can share this story on social media:

Gaza Strip, Israel, Jeremy Corbyn, Russia-Ukraine conflict, UK, UK Labour Party

Dear readers! Thank you for your vibrant engagement with our content and for sharing your points of view. Please note that we have switched to a new commenting system. To leave comments, you will need to register. We are working on some adjustments so if you have questions or suggestions feel free to send them to feedback@rttv.ru. Please check our commenting policy

RT Features

‘Sovereignty written with bulldozers’: How Israel lays foundations for permanent West Bank annexation FEATURE

The train to Kashmir is finally real – and it’s stunning FEATURE

Why South Africa keeps picking up Russia’s call FEATURE

Podcasts

All podcasts

- ▶ Kiev regime’s decay

0:00
24:32
⏮ ⏪ ⏩ ⏭
- ▶ The fabric of identity: Russian fashion reimagined

0:00
23:2
⏮ ⏪ ⏩ ⏭

AA B i “ > ☰ ☰

Your comment here

Sign In

Sort by Recently updated ▾Venom 7/25/2025 at 2:15 PM

1

Let's hope this time he's not shaken by the Jews like he was before. The tide is in his favor. Let's see if he can ride it correctly.

Replyanimalbman@aol.com 7/25/2025 at 2:04 PM

-1

Why would the UK want another Israel first party?

ReplyJosh 7/25/2025 at 1:48 PM

1

Finally some good news coming out of Britain. Let's just hope he doesn't have any « accidents ».

ReplyKaisar Stardio 7/25/2025 at 1:41 PM

2

The world needs hundreds of Corbyns to build a successful coalition against the powers that be.

ReplyGuayacan 7/25/2025 at 11:02 AM

-2

Very unfortunately, all this introduces is yet another division of the left, and that is why it is flawed from the start. The whole background of the Labour movement was based on union of workers, which made the party extremely powerful. Jeremy was the leader of that party for some time and despite it obviously being the most popular and necessary manifesto at that time, Jeremy proved he had no leadership qualities. This alone isn't of the greatest importance, and he could, and should have nominated someone else to perform that role, whilst staying the head of the party. But sadly, he and his hopeless deputy, tried an utterly pathetic policy of uniting members that obviously opposed his views. The subsequent failure simply emphasised this and humiliated not just Corbyn, but the whole movement.

Jeremy has not learned anything from his initial failure, meaning that it will result in the same failure. George Galloway has clearly got the right strategy and yet Jeremy continues to ignore the very man that has a worldwide audience and arguably the most powerful voice in the UK political scene. George clearly reached out to him previously and currently and also advised that he should follow the tactics of Melonchon, but it will be on deaf ears.

With the scam of the latest Nigel Farage party, which is just a formation of a right wing conservative group designed to disrupt the working class vote, and the chav snobbery of ignorant working class conservative party voters, this new venture of Corbyn is doomed. The problem with Corbyn is not his morality, it is he simply does not have the skill-set to perform the task he desires to be, and his arrogance combined with his lack of leadership and deep thought are clear. Then there is the establishment which opposes him, and which reveals his weakness on a grand scale. The last time he tried leadership he had massive desperate support of people praying for him to win and change course for the country, and he personally, not his manifesto, failed to meet the obligation.

Reply

Black Panther 7/25/2025 at 1:18 PM ↑

1

Bla bla bla , labor and conservative are 2 cheeks of the same ass GG, both supporting genocide, both friends of murdering zionist.

Reply

