Western and Ukrainian officials held 'secret meeting' on ousting Zelensky – Russian intel

Top officials in Kiev have backed plans to replace the Ukrainian leader with former military chief Valery Zaluzhny, the SVR has said

US and UK officials have secretly met with key Ukrainian powerbrokers to discuss ousting Vladimir Zelensky and replacing him with former military chief Valery Zaluzhny, according to Russia's Foreign Intelligence Service (SVR).

In a statement on Tuesday, the SVR claimed Western officials had gathered at an undisclosed Alpine

According to the agency, all sides agreed "it is high time" for Zelensky to be replaced and called the change "a key condition for resetting Kiev's relations with the West and continuing Western military aid."

The SVR reported that US and UK officials told their Ukrainian counterparts they want Zaluzhny to become president. The agency claimed that Yermak and Budanov "saluted" the plan and secured promises that they would keep their current posts if Zaluzhny took over.

Ukrainian troops face 'critical' attrition – CNN

Zaluzhny, who served as commander-in-chief of Ukraine's armed forces between 2021 and 2024, has enjoyed high approval ratings, with speculation that he would likely beat Zelensky in a potential presidential election.

The SVR also claimed the covert meeting revealed why Zelensky had initially backed a bill that would have stripped two Ukrainian anti-corruption bodies of their independence. The crackdown sparked protests at home and criticism from the West, prompting Zelensky to roll back the reform.

According to the SVR, Yermak "set up" Zelensky by advising him to push the controversial law, knowing this would undermine his image abroad and provide justification for Western partners to seek his removal.

The SVR went on to address ordinary Ukrainians, saying: "A new president of your country has been chosen at an Alpine resort. Is this the triumph of Ukrainian democracy and independence you dreamed of?"

Zelensky's presidential term expired last May, but he has refused to hold a new election, citing martial law. Russia has proclaimed him "illegitimate," insisting that the true power now lies with the Ukrainian parliament.

I, for one, do not believe for a minute in this gentlemen's replacement. He will stay till the end and, as the case may be, he will be blamed for everything. One replaces the leader if one believes that something new can be done under the newcomer. Short of a nuke war, there's nothing that could happen because of the change in leadership. Some noise that would paint him unfavourably will certainly happen. Discrediting and the blame game take a long time; it's good to start early!

out with a # 5 Iron N left them all resting on the floor but one. One I left with groves in his face which I heard down the road , he stated he got from the six day war. In the morning when he looks in the mirror he knows the truth. The brothers also pummeled my sister with fists, till I was on seen . Police asked who did this to them. They didn't know.

I didn't tell, and we didn't press charges. We didn't know that , that's what people do. 4 ambulances were needed to take them to the hospitals.

The Father Asholom 14 years later raped the daughter and did a stint in Dover NH prison for 12 years. The wife drove him crazy. Imagine he came from Israel so Albert Einstein College of Medicine in The Bronx,had him working as an Electrician;(!
