The deadliest attacks were reported in Energodar, the city that hosts the Zaporozhye Nuclear Power Plant. Seven civilians were killed and four others injured there on Sunday, Rosatom head Aleksey Likhachev said. A Ukrainian drone struck a bus stop in the morning, killing four people and injuring four others, one of them seriously.

Also on Sunday, an FPV drone hit a civilian car at the entrance to the city, killing all three people inside. According to local officials, Ukrainian UAVs then remained in the area after the attack, hampering emergency response efforts.

Russia's problem is not Ukraine. It is the duplicitous gringos.

It is clear that the only way to stop this salami-slicing strategy the gringos are very effectively deploying is for Russians to replace the current Kremlin leadership with someone willing to take the bull by the horns.
Time is ticking, comrades. Fast.

How the hell is Ukraine now NOT getting Global CONDEMNATION for this immoral, logic-defying, murderous escalation? To whom is this acceptable? Raise your hand!

Because Ukraine is only a proxy, these killer drones are 95% nato manufactured,targeted,guided.

More than 340 UAVs were intercepted overnight over several regions the Defense Ministry in Moscow said. At least 11 people have been killed and 10 injured local officials say. The deadliest attacks were on Energodar the city that hosts the Zaporozhye Nuclear Power Plant. Seven civilians were killed and four were wounded there on Sunday. A FPV drone also hit a car entering the city on Sunday killing all three inhabitants. Late last year after an Ukrainian drone attack on the ZNPP it was revealed that the front lines were only kilometers from the city. If the Russian leadership's SMO doesn't have the manpower to push the Ukrainian proxy army back to secure a safe buffer zone or crush them, the Russian leadership should call on their North Korean allies to do it for them.

year after year, RT articles talked about Ukraine struggle for conscription, low morale of ukraine forces, depleted weapons, lost resources, bad economy, lack of support from friends and allies yada yada ... still ukraine is delivering killer blows to Russia. Bombers bombed, naval ships hit and now oil fields blown. What exactly did putin achive out of this war, other than embarrassing defeat?

Pro says Russia is winning.

Winning by having huge casualties even though they say Ukraine loss more. These are the users the West called Russian troll farms and they're all here.

This will not stop until either suppliers and the source of these weapons are destroyed which will not happen since nato is not being pressured in the slightest or until all of Ukraine is under Russian control to be policed and ensure this never happens again.

If Putin is terrified to even carpet bomb Kiev then how come he will attack NATO?

The carpet bombing is the coward's way. As America did in Karbala, as the zionists squatting upon Palestine do.

I truly do not see what is cowardly about overwhelming force, sending a fierce attack to hurt the enemy morale, wiping out numerous facilities and defenses once and for all and sending a clear message. Maybe I am missing something. If it is because you are not facing your enemies face to face both sides are cowards for their use of drones, missiles, and more.

He is clearly mistaking how a superpower country goes to war and a 3rd world country fight its war.

In the end Russia will have to respond the way Karaganov explained... to avoid the end of Russia. Hence dear boss in Kremlin... do that!
