

Trump ‘betrayal’ puts US on path to revolution – Tucker Carlson

The president has been “totally disloyal” and “cheated” on the country with a foreign power, the conservative journalist has told Bloomberg

Published 18 Jul, 2026 03:56

The US is on the path to revolution because President Donald Trump has betrayed Americans by putting foreign interests ahead of those of his own country, journalist Tucker Carlson has said.

In an interview on Bloomberg’s The Mishal Husain Show aired on Friday, the conservative commentator – once among Trump’s most prominent supporters – accused the president of being “totally disloyal” to the US, saying he had “cheated on the United States with a foreign power.”

“This is why countries have revolutions,” Carlson said, adding: “I don’t want revolution, but we’re going to get a revolution if this continues.”

The former Fox News host, who backed Trump's 2024 reelection campaign before breaking with him over Iran, argued that many Americans no longer believed the political system represented their interests. He said Republicans had failed to fulfill promises to dismantle the "deep state," citing the handling of the Jeffrey Epstein files as evidence of why many supporters had lost faith in the party.

Carlson has become increasingly critical of US backing for Israel's war in Gaza and publicly urged Trump not to attack Iran during Israel's 12-Day War with the Islamic Republic in June 2025. Their rift deepened after the US joined Israel's strikes on Iran in late February, with Carlson accusing Trump of putting Israeli interests ahead of America's. He also described Trump's "true religion" as "Israelism" and called the Iran war "disgusting and evil."

"Trump allowed the US government to be completely steered by this tiny little country in the Middle East, Israel, to our great detriment," Carlson told Bloomberg, adding that he had argued directly against Trump's approach, but "that had no effect at all."

"And then we wound up in a war with Iran that has gravely hurt the United States," he said.

The interview comes as the US continues its military campaign against Iran. US Central Command said it had completed a sixth consecutive night of strikes on Thursday after Trump threatened to expand attacks to Iranian energy infrastructure and bridges.

Iran has responded with drone and missile strikes on US military facilities across the region. Tehran has also warned that regional oil and gas exports could be halted, while the Islamic Revolutionary Guard Corps Navy has declared the Strait of Hormuz closed until Washington ends its "illegal" military intervention.

The US is not yet ready for a revolution-not enough pain yet. People, (particularly low information in the US) don't really care about foreign involvement or implications thereof, just as long as their dollar menu is up and gas is down and a Bud Llight is ready.

There won't be a revolution. Americans live in a real life Truman show. They are far removed from reality hence why they voted to have a child fiddling pdfile become POTUS and serve the devious plans of the diabolical Zionist qunts!

IT'S COMING! Peter Turchin wrote that after 2030 its guaranteed that US will not exist as is; he predicted in 2009 about 2020; was RIGHT on TARGET, I THINK IT ALREADY STARTED & US so close to collapsing, due to several evils, WHY do you Think they really Hired 60,000 ICE

US History

→ Creating Debt Slaves

by over taxation, now tariffs, thefts through the FEDERAL RESERVE combined w/ creation of permanent additional theft through IRS (16th Amendment)+ OTHERS. Creating the Fiat massive Printing & confiscating all citizens' gold (1933) to ensure Fiat usage! Recently using tax liens

Statistical Camouflage Operation:

- Military divorce rates: 68% (suspicious)
- Civilian divorce rates before DOMESTIC Violence Psy-Ops were at 5 to 6% after VAWA: 65% (now it looks «normal»)
- Result: less questions why military families uniquely destroyed, more potential SINGLE enlisted

Amplification Strategy:

1. Destroy men systematically through family courts
2. Strip them of everything – kids, house, income, purpose
3. Wait for the statistical inevitability – some will snap
4. Use those cases as justification for gun control

Psychological Warfare:

- «Men are violent» → Men with guns are more violent → No one should have guns
- They literally manufactured the crisis they needed to justify disarmament

Gov thought ITSELF GENIUS

GOV created their own evidence. By systematically destroying men's lives, they guaranteed a certain percentage would become violent. Then they point to that violence as proof that men (& guns) are the problem

The Constitutional Endgame:

- 1st Amendment: Already under attack through «hate speech» laws
- 2nd Amend: Using manufactured male violence as justification → Remove Guns
- 4th Amend: Domestic violence calls bypass warrant requirements
- 5th Amend: Family courts operate without due process

GOALS

Military families destroyed → Civilian families destroyed → Male violence increases → Gun rights eliminated → Total control achieved

Fractional Reserve banking requires an exponential growth engine through debt but as you can see they can't increase the asset values anymore in the US because literally nobody can afford them so this is peak there's no more increasing value in real estate this is it this is the top

I mean to be fair I voted for Trump specifically to get the Epstein files released and to prevent World War he was a pretty good liar I only voted for him on the 3rd election but it was what him or World War III? I think you give two little credit to the way people think I'll tell you right now I'm never voting in this government ever again because that gives it it'll make consent and you get none of that they're evil they're hostile their child eating FS

Trump is just one of many puppets of the NWO tyrants; therefore, there is no betrayal nor a US on path to revolution. For instance, so-called Civil War was a Rothschild gangs plot. Abraham Lincoln was assassinated because of Greenback notes, a emergency paper currency issued by the United States during the Civil War, first authorized in 1861 under Lincoln's administration, which had managed to escape the kabbal's trap of Talmudic usury.

"many Americans no longer believed the political system represented their interests."
When was the last time the rogue oligarch political system, within the U.S., even remotely represented the interests of the American people...??

Who really knows. Maybe prior to the creation of the Fed in 1913, maybe not even then. Maybe in some period between the civil war that ended in 1865 and 1913. Good question though, just no good answers.

I don't agree.. There won't be a revolution. Americans are too obese and sick to do that.. Instead, there will be mass starvation and bigger tent cities in the US.

True more than 50% supported King George but the reality was Gen. Benedict Arnold won the Battle of Ticonderoga and this convinced the French that the rebels could win and the French aid turned the tide. Arnold twice wounded, once gravely, used up all of his assets to pay his soldiers and after failing to receive promotions or pay for his soldiers, finally walked away to England. He of course was later demonized for his actions.
