Russian man accused of treason after dealing with Five Eyes spy group

The suspect allegedly passed military secrets to Western agents via New Zealand

Published 27 Jul, 2026 06:55 | Updated 27 Jul, 2026 08:11

A Russian man is facing treason charges after allegedly offering confidential information to intelligence officers from New Zealand, a member of the notorious 'Five Eyes'.

The suspect, who is in his mid-50s, was identified by the Federal Security Service (FSB) as a resident of Khabarovsk in eastern Russia. He was arrested after reportedly providing "information that can be used to harm Russian security," the agency said in a statement on Monday. New Zealand is a member of the Five Eyes, a Western intelligence-sharing alliance, where it works closely with the US, UK, Australia and Canada.

According to Russian counter-espionage authorities, the New Zealanders were interested in classified information regarding military cooperation with nations in the Asia-Pacific region.

The FSB said the suspect had betrayed Russia for financial reasons. Officers who conducted a search at his residence found stacks of US banknotes stored in a bank bag, with the sum valued in the tens of thousands of dollars.

The Five Eyes began in World War II as a group dedicated to the collection and sharing of signal intelligence. Its global surveillance programs drew criticism after the scale of the espionage was exposed by whistleblower Edward Snowden. Critics say members exploit intelligence sharing to

What happened on February 27, 1868.? The FVEY was formed during the WW2, 1946. United States of America and United Kingdom signed UKUSA agreement which formalized zones of spying and intelligence sharing, 1950. New Zealand, Canada and Australia joined. So, yeah, it is definitely connected to the masters of the anglosphere, the tiny hats themselves.

Israel is often described as the unseen sixth eye among the Five Eyes Alliance which is essentially an anglo-american-zionist invention.

Five eyes is unique, all five members spy on each other and share intelligence with USA, but you're right Israel spies on everyone. Since the Jewish John Key was Prime Minister, NZ's
