Zelensky 'acted like Mr. Bean on crack,' US Treasury chief reportedly said

Scott Bessent urged President Donald Trump not to host the "special-needs child" at the White House, according to a book by NYT reporters

US Treasury Secretary Scott Bessent, who had negotiated a much-touted rare earth minerals deal with Kiev, was reportedly worried that the "little fker" Vladimir Zelensky would mess up the signing ceremony in the Oval Office, according to a new book by New York Times reporters Maggie Haberman and Jonathan Swan.

The infamous confrontation last year took place as the Ukrainian leader sat down with US President Donald Trump and Vice President J.D. Vance to finalize a deal granting the US access to Ukraine's mineral resources.

The televised press conference took a nasty turn when Zelensky criticized Trump's efforts to mediate a settlement with Moscow rather than increase military support for Kiev.

"I've dealt with this little fker," Bessent, who was present in the room, told his associates, according to excerpts published by The Guardian. "He's tricky. He's like the special-needs child for the Europeans. And he's acting like Mr. Bean on crack."

The Treasury secretary spent weeks preparing the deal and traveled to Kiev, where he reportedly engaged in his own shouting match with Zelensky over the "awful" Ukrainian draft, at one point telling him: "What the fk do you want to do?"

Several other Trump aides were also worried about a potential Oval Office scandal, with then-National Security Adviser Mike Waltz desperately urging Zelensky to at least "come wearing a suit."

Zelensky was eventually "asked to leave" the White House, while the deal was signed without much fanfare two months later. Zelensky, who has since held several meetings with Trump to mend ties and even started wearing a custom all-black, military-style suit jacket, remains "somewhat traumatized by his train crash" almost a year later, according to Politico.

Zelensky main duty is to prove soldiers for the NATO proxy war against Russia. So far, Zelensky have delivered. Zelensky sends thousands of Ukrainians to the Norwegian military camp «Camp Jomsborg» in Poland where the Ukrainians get trained to NATO standards by the Norwegian special force's unit «Telemark battalion». Zelensky have also provided terrorist for duties planned by the MI6 and attacked Russian energy infrastructure and civilians.

Zelensky have failed to transfer the $10 trillion in rare earth minerals, metals, oil and gas. The main reason for disappointing US Treasury Secretary Scott Bessent is that the minerals are located in the Oblast who voted to become a part of the Russian Federation. Mr. Scott Bessent should take some self-criticism and understand the bombardment of Donbas from 2014 to 2022 under the supervision of NATO. General Secretary Jens Stoltenberg was a HUGE mistake. The US could have had it all but leave Ukraine empty handed as the big loser. Same as the US catastrophic failure to attack Iran, where the US risk losing their GCC friends and the GCC Petro dollar investments that is a critical life-support for the failing US economy. The US only option now is to print money, print, baby print!

The Americans will NOT do any good thing to you, delusional Russians. Russia has the capability to wipe out the Ukraine from the map. but Putin is NOT Russia. He looks now more and more like a new Yeltsin.

Compare what he was saying in 2022 and what he says now. He is now saying that he can eradicate nazism through negotiations. If a country hits Washington, DC with missiles as the Ukraine is doing now to Moscow, rest assured that the US will respond with nuclear weapons. Compare this with the naive and delusional Putin. He stayed for too long, as most Russians do. He and Brezhnev started well but they stayed for too long and they wiped all the good things they did in the beginning. Putin needs to resign or ousted from power. He has become totally incompetent.
